Till the outbreak of the war in August 1914, an area of 303 acres 30¼ guntas near Hebbal was occupied by the British Military authorities in addition to the C & M. Station.

Further, certain lands near Hadgudi & Harlgunte & other villages in the Bangalore Taluk and some lands in the Kankanhalli Taluk had been leased out for Dairy farms and grass beds, and an area of 12 acres and 12 guntas had been given for a pumping station near Tarabinahalli in the Bangalore Taluk, all before the war. Some lands in the Nelamangala & Devanhalli Taluks have been reserved as camping grounds for the military.

2. Since the outbreak of the war, the marginally noted lands have been temporarily given to the Military authorities.

Water Works village	27 acres 35 guntas (near Hebbal Rifle Range)
do.	57 acres 7 guntas Situated to the West and South of Tipu's Look out.

These lands are utilized for the location of the camps of the Territorial Infantry Battalions.

3. A statement showing the extent of the lands, the purpose for which, and the terms under which they are given either permanently or temporarily has been compiled and is herewith submitted

In this connection it may be mentioned that it is under contemplation to shift the Hebbal butts to another suitable locality. The matter is under correspondence with the Residency.

4. It is ~~submitted~~ understood that since the outbreak of the war, a Territorial Infantry Brigade has been temporarily located in Bangalore.

5. It is understood that the Head Quarters of the Southern Division (No.9) have been transferred from Secunderabad to Bangalore.

6. It was also under the contemplation of the British Authorities to establish eight camps near Hoskote for ~~the~~ Indian Infantry Battalions but this idea has since been abandoned.

7. There is no official information about the ~~strength~~ Strength of the garrison stationed at Bangalore.

Resubmits the plan showing the land given to the Military Authorities after excising there in the piece of land near the Hebbal Rifle Range & ground near Tippu's Lookout South of Hebbal Rifle Range.

M E M O.

Areas given to the British Military authorities outside the limits of the Civil and Military Station, Bangalore.

Bangalore Taluk.

(1) Tarabinahalli Village.-

12 acres 13 guntas in this village has been given for the purposes of the Bangalore Civil and Military Station Pumping Station. The conditions on which the above lands has been given is not available in the Taluk Office as the correspondence in the matter is reported to have been carried by the Superintending Engineer, Water Works.

(2) Maralukunte.-

This Jodi village bearing an area of 199 acres - 39 guntas has been leased out by the Jodidar to the Military authorities for a Dairy Farm Farm.(Vide Secretary's Memo No. G.4999/G.M.223-16-4 dated 30th October 1916).

(3 - 5) Jarakabunde Kaval:- 685 acres - 26 guntas.
Ketmaranahalli:- 273 acres - 26 guntas.
Laggere:- 447 acres - 32 guntas
Total:- 1406 acres - 4 guntas

A total area of 1406 acres - 4 guntas in the three villages as shown above, out of the lands acquired for the Malegal Water Project has been leased out to the Military authorities for a grass Farm, the lease being renewed once in every three years. The last renewal of the lease was for 3 years from the 25th August 1914(Vide Government order No. G.11725/G.M.307-09-33 dated 27th April 1915. This land is resumable ~~at~~ on the expiry of the lease period.

(6) Water-works:-

Adjacent to the quarters of the Military in this village 38 acres of land have in addition been given for the

the temporary use of the Military authorities.(Vide Government order No.12974/G.445-15-2 dated 16th March 1916). This land is resumable after the firing practice of the Territorials is over.

(7) Subsequent to this another portion to the North of the Palace Orchard appears to have also been given for the temporary use of the British Troops. The correspondence regarding this is not available in this office.

(8) Butts:-

The Rifle-Range at Hebbal measuring 458 acres - 35 guntas is shown under the above name as a separate village in Government Accounts. When the old Rifle-Range was removed from the High-ground, this land was acquired and given in 1893 for the purpose but was not included within the boundaries of the Civil and Military Station(Vide History of the New-rifle Range at Hebbal).

(9) Hadugodi:-

An extent of 15 acres - 14 guntas of land in the Hadgodi village, contiguous to the existing Dairy Farm there, has been leased to the Military Department in exchange for 22 acres of the Dairy Farm at Hebbal(Vide Government order No.R.8874-7/Agri.61-12-36 dated 18th May 1914).

(10) Hadugodi and Harlkunte.

The Military Dairy Farms at Hadugodi and Harlkunte are shown in the accounts as belonging to the private Khate of one Colonel Gunnings. The assessment thereon is being collected every year through book-adjustment from the Military Department.

Nelamangala Taluk.-

The lands reserved in this Taluk for the camping ground of the Military Men are as follows:-

Acres		Guntas.
38	-	17	Survey No.51 assessed at Rs.36/- of the Yadahalli village.

Acres	Guntas
8	3	Constituting Survey No.54 assessed at Rs.10/- of the above village.
12	12	Survey No.54½ of -do- assessed at Rs.12/-
48	31	Total in Yadehalli.
8	15	Survey No.37 assessed at Rs.5-8-0 of Madavara Village.

Devanhalli Taluk.-

Portions of Gomal survey Nos.55,83, and 82 and of the occupied Survey No.54 of Alurduddanahalli are reported to have been marked with boundary stones numbered from 1 to 110 by the Military Department. It is not possible to ascertain from the Taluk records on what authority the lands have thus been marked by the Military authorities and on what conditions they are being used by them as a camping ground. No order prohibiting the giving of these -- lands for cultivation purposes is reported to be available in the Taluk.

Kankanhalli Taluk.-

Gullahatti kaval out of the total area of 4873 acres)	...	2575 acres
Chulakanakere Kaval	...	100 acres
Bettahalli Kaval	...	609 acres
Gabbadi	...	215 acres
Rampura	...	68 acres.
		3558 acres

These have been leased out for 10 years as grass beds to the British Military authorities. For the -- terms of the lease vide. Government order No.R.9071-7/ Ft.46-06-76 dated 28th February 1917.
